

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

All is calm, all is bright

THIS WAS THE WEEK when the pieces of the Christmas Kaleidoscope all fell into place to produce a most beautiful holiday EVER. The last cookie baked, the last fruitcake boxed, the last gift card written, the last Xmas card sent off in time for New Year's, and SUDDENLY, the minute Mother and Dad wearily wended their way to bed, HERE was Santa Claus!

The clatter of new cars and trucks and trains and crying dolls was music to our ears. Even at six in the morning! It was Goodbye hectic shopping days! Goodbye tired pen and eye! Goodbye scratch tape and tangled ribbons! For the marvelous rush when all are aglow and too much on-the-go suddenly reached its climax with the peace that comes on Christmas Day . . . the sense of quietude and carol music and church-going and family fun transcends everything, touches it with magic.

AND JUST AS SUDDENLY, it's all over. But the memory lingers on and on and on.

HOLIDAY PARTIES filled the calendar . . . on of the MOST festive, the Xmas benefit for the Children's Home Society by Pandora Chapter on Dec. 14 at the WC Elk's Club, which IS, by the way, far from the usual marble and ivy-covered mausoleum, but a VERY attractive spacious contemporary building sitting on a knoll above the Danville Highway.

Babes in Toyland

TOY SOLDIERS, DRUMS AND DOLLS delightfully hung among the green spruce boughs, packages, mammoth-sized, tied w/tremendous red ribbon, here and there a bright brass musical instrument, the front door wrapped as PANDORA'S GIFT BOX and all members easily identified by the tiny boxes worn on their frocks . . . Marcia Henning the recipient of superlatives for her decorating stint as Chairman of that committee.

Downstairs, where some dined, an old-fashioned Christmas prevailed . . . A six-foot Santa suit, (handstuffed by Ida and Jack Pedder) sat at the piano stool . . . The fragrance of greens and garlands, giant candy canes, and a gay crowd cornered for the ever-popular BINGO!

The Vern Axelsons chatted w/the Con Smiths . . . Dee Bussey, Betty and Joe Zablocki, Ronald Lights w/talk of THEIR party plans for last Friday's Young Republican Santa Soiree at the Carroll Ranch.

WHAT'S DOING

Howard Greenhalgh, your Telephone Manager in Orinda

Listen, my little sweetheart...

This was the year you discovered that fascinating thing Mommy and Daddy call the telephone. Pretty wonderful, isn't it? But just you wait! Why, by the time you're grown—say twenty years from now—lots of wonderful things will have happened to your phone. You'll probably have one in every room of your home. Maybe you'll even carry a tiny one in your pocket. Combined telephone and television may be yours if you wish. All these things will come from never-ending telephone research—will come, too, from the men and women of Pacific Telephone, who work to make your telephone more useful every day.

Let your Personal Number Book remember the number

Do you find yourself with more than the usual number of phone calls to make this time of year: friends to call and thank, stores to phone, party arrangements to make? Well, now is the time to collect all these telephone numbers in one spot where they'll be easy to find the year around. And a good place to write them down is in this handy Blue Book. We'll be happy to give you one. Just call, write or drop in and see us. The Blue Book of Telephone Numbers is yours for the asking.

SEASON'S GREETINGS

Throughout the year we have enjoyed bringing good telephone service to more users in this expanding area than ever before. And of course we'll do our best to have your telephone contribute to our season's wish of joy and happiness for the New Year.

Teacher Awards Speech Students

Three students in the adult speech class at Acalanes High School were rewarded for having learned their lessons so well at the class' recent graduation ceremonies.

Winners of speech competition in the class were awarded books by Sherwood Knight, public speaking instructor from Walnut Creek.

Books were won by Frank Pereira, best unprepared speech; June Allen of Lafayette, special award for speech on Santa Claus; and Trudy Ross of Walnut Creek, who spoke on what she got out of the class.

A new speech class will start at the high school on January 9. The public is invited to sessions each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Doyle Receives 'Full Support' Of Young GOP

A resolution expressing "full confidence in the integrity, honesty and outstanding ability of Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle" was passed recently at the monthly meeting of the Executive Board of the Contra Costa Young Republicans in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dorsey of Lafayette.

The resolution further stated that Doyle "is to be commended for his effectiveness and achievements in his capacity as chairman of the Assembly Education Committee and is, therefore, entirely worthy of our wholehearted support."

The organization will combine a county-wide dance with election

Little Girl Slightly Hurt

Three year-old Melinda Redfield of 2401 Encinal Drive, Walnut Creek, suffered a slight cut on the head December 8, when a car in which she was riding collided with another car at East and Lacassie Streets.

The driver, Loretta Hansen, of 2417 Encinal Drive, was headed east on Lacassie when her car collided with Richard Roth's car, going south on East Street.

Police said that Mrs. Hansen was cited for a stop sign violation and failure to yield right of way.

Palo Alto Developer Buys 186 Acres of Orinda Land

With recording of deeds in the office of County Recorder Ralph Cunningham in Martinez, sale of 186 acres of land north and east of the Orinda Crossroads area was consummated December 18.

The sale was by Altairinda Estates, Inc., to the Pacific Reliance Company of Palo Alto.

Two deeds were recorded. Revenue stamps on the deeds indicated well over a half-million dollars as the purchase price.

Revenue stamps affixed to one deed totaled $515.90, indicating a purchase price of $465,975. On the second deed were $115 in revenue stamps, indicating an additional $105,000 of purchase price.

Total purchase price was thus indicated as more than $570,000.

HUGO NADANER, president of the Palo Alto development firm, said that work on an approximate $12 million residential development at the newly acquired acreage will get under way "relatively soon."

He added that plans will conform with existing zoning laws. Nadaner said that the number of lots to be developed has not yet been decided.

The 186 acres lies north of Mt. Diablo Boulevard between Pacific and Highway 24, Unit 70 in Unit 2. The building program is about 75 per cent complete in Unit 1, he said, and about 15 per cent complete in Unit 2.

IN 1954 Altairinda Estates, Inc., signed a 5-year contract with EBMUD for purchase of 270.63 acres for $212,600.

Final conveyance by EBMUD to Altairinda Estates, Inc., of over 180 acres a month ago followed payment of over $100,000 by Altairinda Estates, Inc., for principal and interest on this remaining acreage.

Payment in full by Altairinda Estates, Inc., to EBMUD was completed about three years ahead of the time specified in the contract, according to H. J. Wickman, EBMUD land agent.

Johnson reported that all the roadwork has been installed in Units 1 and 2 of Altairinda Estates.

He added that 106 homesites have been developed in the two units. Unit 70 in Unit 2.

The building program is about 75 per cent complete in Unit 1, he said, and about 15 per cent complete in Unit 2.

New Part-Time Classes to Begin

Registration for the new session of 10-week classes for part-time students at East Contra Costa Junior College will be held January 5, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., in Building 12, Charles E. Chapman, assistant dean, announced today.

The first classes will meet the following Monday night.

Twenty classes will be open to persons 18 years of age or over whether or not they are high school graduates. There is no tuition. Part-time students may take one course that meets once a week or a full program with the intention of earning credits toward the Associate in Arts degree.

Monday night classes will include clothing construction (also given Tuesday and Thursday nights), industrial instrumentation, legal aspects of nursing, vocational and educational planning (psychology 111).

Six Tuesday night classes will be aeronautical navigation, industrial wiring, home furnishing and decoration, communication in industry (management 135), methods, development and analysis in industry (psychology 167); and the second class in clothing construction.

Machine calculation and computer and the separate secretarial laboratory class will meet Wednesday nights as well as the advanced tailoring class in clothing construction.

Offered Thursday nights will be typewriting practice and review, applied office procedures and business records (business 180); income approach to real property evaluation (business 264), motors (electricity 261), principles of executive leadership (psychology 260), case study methods (psychology 161), and the third class in clothing construction.

With a few exceptions, the classes meet from 7 to 9:40 p.m.

Registration on the Saturday before the session begins gives part-time students greater assurance of getting into the classes they prefer, and permits the college to find it impossible to sign up that day may do so in Building 9 during the first two weeks of the term by reporting between 6:30 and 7:30 p.m.

Information leaflets describing the 10-week classes and the 18-week courses which start February 4 are available now. A copy will be mailed on request by telephoning the college, MUIberry 5-4456, or calling at the campus, located on Golf Links Road off State Highway 21.

Tax Benefits Attacked by Contractor

"Tax benefits on public housing bonds are making home loans for the average home buyer more difficult to obtain and should be eliminated," Harold E. Parker, Martinez, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County said today.

The local industry spokesman made this statement in supporting recent testimony by the National Association of Home Builders before the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives. NAHB officials asked Congress to re-examine and eliminate what they called, "this unrealistic tax loophole."

"Tax exemption of public housing bonds is one of the major loopholes in our Federal tax structure," Parker said.

In 1955 nearly $200 million worth of tax exempt new public housing bonds were issued by local housing authorities, bringing the total outstanding public housing securities to some $2 billion—plus an additional $700 million of short-term local housing authority notes, he said.

"This is an enormous amount of very attractive and widely advertised securities—because of the benefit to investors—and constitutes a very real competitor for available mortgage money," he added.

Special Courses Get More Funds Says B. O. Wilson

Contra Costa County will receive more state funds for special classes this year but less for regular educational programs, County Superintendent B. O. Wilson said today.

Wilson explained that an increase in the enrollment in special education, such as for mentally retarded, entitles the county to more funds.

For regular classes, however, an increase in assessed valuation per pupil, which is the yardstick under an equalization program allowing proportionately more to districts with low assessed valuation, has resulted in a loss in state funds, he said.

He referred to the 35 per cent increase in Contra Costa County assessed valuation imposed nearly two years ago by the State Board of Equalization.

Reimbursement for excess costs of educating mentally retarded children, transporting handicapped, and conducting driver training classes totals $575,480, compared to $559,227 last year.

Apportionments which decreased are as follows: Transportation, from $305,412 to $275,743; total principal apportionment, from $14,494,637 to $13,994,164; total, from $15,053,864 to $14,569,644.

Contractors Give Honors To Parker

Harold E. Parker, president of the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County, was honored December 21 at a dinner meeting of the association held at the El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette.

Immediate past president Gary Grover, Lafayette, presented a copper wall plaque to Parker on behalf of the association in recognition and appreciation for the time and effort he contributed for the Association during his term in office.

Grover commented, "It is only through the generosity in time and expense of such men that a trade association may function properly in serving the various segments thereof as well as the governmental officials and the public in the area."

Parker announced that Jack Eymann, Lafayette; Angelo Davi, Pittsburg; Robert B. Johnson, Richmond; and Jack Marchant, Lafayette, had been elected to the association's board of directors for 1957-58. Serving on the board with the newly elected directors will be Parker, Grover and John Osmundsen, Walnut Creek.

At the dinner meeting, which was attended by 200 members and wives, bottles of champagne were presented to Parker, Osmundsen, George Avey, Lafayette; Louis Madrid, Danville; Alan Wilkie, Lafayette, and Freeman House of Walnut Creek as awards in the recent membership campaign.

New Realtor Course to Begin Soon

A new real estate course will be offered at East Contra Costa Junior College when the next session of ten-week classes for part-time students begins January 7.

The course, called Income Approach to Real Property Evaluation (Business 264) will be a specialized study of the principles and methods of capitalization, selection of capitalization rates, theory and uses of capitalization tables, and residual techniques applied to building, land and property.

The new class will meet once a week on Thursday nights from 7 to 9:40 in Room 207, Library-Classroom Building. Additional information may be obtained by telephoning the college at MUIberry 5-4456.

Mental Health Group Plans Future Meets

Contra Costa residents who attended Governor Goodwin Knight's conference on Mental Health at Sacramento last November 14 and 15 gathered again recently to discuss how they can apply what was learned at the conference to this area, according to Dr. Joseph Lifschutz, chairman of the group.

Such follow-up meetings as this were requested by Knight to be sure the conference action may in some way be carried to the community. Hundreds of these meetings have been held throughout the state.

This group composed of Contra Costans from many areas of interest is united to render support to anyone and any group interested in any phase of Mental Health, said Lifschutz.

Further definite action is contemplated and will be directed toward bringing Mental Health discussions to the community focus. Future meetings are being planned by this Mental Health group.

64 Victims of Polio Added to County Lists

"Sixty-four victims of polio have been added this year to the list of those receiving financial assistance from the Contra Costa County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis," Don Blackwood, local chairman, announced today.

He said that if every Contra Costan through age 45 were vaccinated, the $10,000 spent each month by the Chapter for treatment and rehabilitation could be drastically reduced in a short time.

There are a total of 498 polio patients on the active files of the Contra Costa County Chapter. Assistance ranges from minimal treatment, such as replacement of braces, to full time attendance for serious respiratory cases.

Blackwood pointed out that among those vaccinated in 1955, 80 per cent of paralytic type polio was prevented. He said every parent should assume the responsibility for seeing that they and their children are protected before the 1957 polio season starts.

Polio vaccine is available to everyone from their private physician. Children through 19 years of age and pregnant women may receive vaccine at any of the Health Department clinics located throughout the county.

Dick Haskell Named Fraternity Officer

Richard D. Haskell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Haskell, of 69 Camino del Diablo, Orinda, was recently elected recording secretary of Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity at Brown University.

A graduate of Acalanes Union High School, he is a member of the sophomore class, and is a candidate for the Bachelor of Science Degree in Physics.

Highway District Expands Staff

As a result of a stepped up federal program of highway planning, the State Division of Highways expanded its top-level engineering staff in the Bay Area with the appointment Saturday of R. A. Hayler.

Hayler, who will assume his new duties in mid-January, has been assistant district engineer in charge of planning in the San Diego district for eight years.

He will be responsible for design of state highway projects in Sonoma, Marin, Napa, Santa Clara and Santa Cruz counties.

District Engineer J. P. Sinclair will be responsible for district-wide planning, with specific design responsibility for projects in Alameda, Contra Costa, San Francisco and San Mateo counties.

Sinclair now is acting assistant State Highway Engineer during the convalescence of B. W. (Barney) Booker from a heart ailment. Booker is expected to return to work in the near future.

The third district engineer, L.A. Weymouth, will continue as district engineer in charge of operations, which include supervision of construction, maintenance and administration.

Farm Bureau Women Plan Next Meeting

Contra Costa Farm Bureau women will meet next Friday at 10 a.m. at the Knightsen Farm Bureau Hall.

The host for the day and for the luncheon will be Knightsen with Mrs. D. M. Davies chairman, and Byron with Mrs. D. O. Helman chairman.

Mrs. Harry Hobbs, Knightsen, will officiate. Mrs. Mary Ryan Williams, county home advisor, will discuss home extension plans.

Miss Anna M. Pleasant, county home advisor, and Mrs. Gertrude Caldera, county committee 4-H chairman, will give 4-H news and projects.

Special guests will be Mrs. Alice P. Holt of St. Helena, chairman of the California Farm Bureau Women, and Mrs. Audrey Olsen of Vacaville, Region 9 chairman.

Mrs. Hobbs and Mrs. George W. Fox of Concord, delegates, will report on the recent Farm Bureau Federation state convention in San Diego. Mrs. Holt will give a resume of the American Farm Bureau Federation's convention in Miami, Fla.

The speaker of the afternoon will be Mr. Bob King, Berkeley, California Farm Bureau Federation's health insurance field representative.

Real Estate is Top Investment, Declares Gilbert

Long noted for its safety, real estate is becoming a more attractive investment by the day because of the interaction of a vigorously growing demand and a fixed supply of land, Barney Gilbert, president of the Contra Costa Real Estate Board, said today.

"While not discounting the characteristic advantages of various types of investments, a growing number of investors look upon bonds as too vulnerable to inflation and common stocks as too risky or niggardly in yield," Gilbert said.

"Real estate values, on the other hand, move with the purchasing power of the dollar, and are now more than ever reflecting ever-growing value of land by home builders, industrialists, and farmers."

Underlying the current interest in real estate as an investment, he pointed out, is the shrewd observation of one expert: "They aren't making much real estate any more, but there are more and more people to use what's available."

To illustrate his contention that real estate is pulling ahead of other competitive outlets for the investment dollar, Gilbert cited the following facts compiled by the National Association of Real Estate Boards with which the Contra Costa Board is affiliated:

1. American industry is well on its way to realizing its plans for a $35 billion expansion in plant and equipment this year—all of which means a brisk market in land for industrial uses.

2. Current indications are that home construction will run in the neighborhood of 1.1 million units or more in 1956—a continuation of the million plus level of recent years—which indicates a continuing expansion of suburban real estate.

3. As a result of the two foregoing facts, plus the lure of part-time farms for many families, the research division of NAREB reported recently that individuals, home builders, and industrialists in some areas "are engaged in brisk competition for available and suitable land" adjacent to cities.

4. As a result of this brisk competition and the recent trend calling for larger farms, about 1.4 million farms have "disappeared" between 1940 and 1954.

5. Farm land values are at all-time highs, according to the Department of Agriculture, reflecting "an apparently widespread opinion that farm land is a desirable long term investment." The nation's farm real estate assets on the first of this year were $102.7 billion, which represents an average value of $88.65 per acre for the 1,158 million acres in farms across the nation.

Goldfish Gone; --How? Where?

Missing from their customary habitat in the outdoor pool behind the Gwendoline Boucher home, 1241 Walker Avenue, are 12 goldfish.

Mrs. Boucher told police officers that she was sure that cats are not responsible although there are a number of them in the area. She said that juveniles may have removed the large boulders securing the overhead screen, and taken the fish.

Neighbors Help Fight House Fire

Two Lafayette boys, riding on their bicycles past the home of Felix Machuca, 783 Solana Drive yesterday morning, noticed smoke billowing inside the house and rushed to the home of a neighbor to notify the Lafayette Fire Department.

After the boys, Mike Mayne, 13, and John Morrison, 12, alerted the firemen they joined neighbors in battling the growing flames with garden hoses.

The fire department arrived on the scene a few minutes later and easily quelled the blaze. But in the wake of the fire were left a badly seared living room, charred furniture and a blackened Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Machuca, who work during the day, were not at home when the fire broke out.

2 Injured in Coincidental Auto Accidents

Mt. Diablo Boulevard near Dolores Drive in Lafayette was the scene of two almost identical accidents about one-half hour apart which injured two people Wednesday night.

The first occurred at 10:40 p.m., when the vehicle driven by Isaac Tracy Axon Jr., 41, of San Francisco, was struck from the rear while stopped in the line of traffic, the California Highway Patrol reported.

Driver of the second car was Charles Garrett Barry, 59, of 3000 Clayton Road, Concord, whose wife, Beulah, 50, was driven to a private doctor with minor injuries.

Just 30 minutes later, the car driven by Betty Jo Rader, 23, of 760 Cumberland Drive Lafayette was stopped close to the scene of the first accident when it was hit in the rear by the vehicle of Charles W. Cline, 21, of Forrestville, Calif.

The woman incurred slight injury and was taken to a private doctor. Cline was cited for excessive speed, according to the CHP.

Skate Party Marks Peggy Hart Birthday

Peggy Hart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert S. Hart of 737 Solana Drive, Lafayette, was 11 years old yesterday. In celebration of her birthday, her parents took Peggy and seven other sixth graders of Lafayette School to the Skate Haven roller skating for a skating party complete with refreshments.

YEAR-END NOSTALGIA

Hard as it may be to believe, another year is rapidly drawing to a close, and a new one prepares to take over. Looking back over the past 12 months brings a picture to mind of a community growing and developing, with all the problems and controversies that naturally go with birth of anything new.

With the doubling of homes in the R. H. C. m. development, and young families, with several children, moving in, additional school facility was necessitated, so two new rooms were constructed out of the auditorium to relieve the situation until our new school is completed.

New business houses were added to the growing shopping center, also a post office and rural mail delivery established.

This past year has seen the starting of a new firehouse on Rheem Boulevard. It has witnessed the extreme opposite in amount of rainfall, and incidentally, the shortage of water for the residents on Larch and Camino Pablo.

READY—NOW WHAT?

Last year at this time, the homes in this area were nearly flooded out, but now the lack of rain is creating a critical situation. Wells are running dry and the shortage of feed in the hills is acute.

The cooperation of Utah Construction Company, Public Works Department and the County in building a drainage ditch above the residential area on Camino Pablo took care of any further danger of flooding. Now all we need is the rain.

The Moraga Junior Horseman's Association was established to bring interest and recognition to the community.

The Moraga Mothers' Club has enjoyed a very active year. In June, through money raised at local social affairs, a hi-fi phonograph and radio were presented to the school.

This year the Mothers Club has been busy. The November potluck dinner, to which the husbands were invited, brought a very good response, especially since slides were shown of Old Moraga, bringing the romantic past history of our community to the attention of both old and new residents.

BUSY MOMS

The Mothers' Club took an active part in the school Christmas program. Donation of the walnuts was by Mr. Barnes of School Street, and candy canes and oranges were by the Mothers' Club. The sacking of the candy and nuts was done by members. Also the trimming of the tree.

Incidentally, three trees were donated by the school and Principal Toll to the Mt. Diablo Therapeutic Center at their new building on Golf Links Road in Concord.

The next Mothers' Club meeting will be held at 8 p.m. next Wednesday. Notices will be sent out.

Mrs. Betty Parker, president, has this to say: "We hope in January to have a membership drive, so that we will have 100 per cent of mothers in the Mothers' Club at the Moraga School."

The report on the Moraga Community Club, given by Jack Winther, president, shows that although there were plenty of problems the first part of the year, these have all been smoothed out, and at the present time things are fairly quiet.

Although the club has enlarged greatly, Jack also feels the necessity of an all-out membership drive. All residents should be interested in joining the Community Club, for in this way alone can we control coming problems of our growing community.

CHILLY BUT NICE

The Community Club Christmas party, held last Saturday night at the Carroll Ranch, was a success, despite the fact that no heat was provided and the night was plenty cold.

Between the smoking fireplace and opening of the door to let out the smoke, it could have been disastrous, but a congenial crowd made it a success.

Out-of-town guests included Ruby Pagliero's brother, Charles Eyle, from Seattle, Washington, who spent the weekend at the Pagliero home. But due to the fact that he had to be back to work on the 26th, he was unable to spend Christmas.

Mrs. Betty Warren, who with her son, Bob, was a weekend house guest of the John Thunes, also attended the party. Betty is a resident of Menlo Park, but enjoys the local affairs as she is becoming quite well acquainted with the people in our community.

Mr. and Mrs. Bell, parents of Mrs. Dudley Davis, who are visiting here over the holidays from the east, also attended the party. Mr. Bell, who is a ham radio operator, found he could get wonderful reception from the Parker Ranch, where he took his portable set Sunday.

MILITARY GUEST

Visitors at the Al Baitx home are Al's brother, Tech Sgt. USMC Maurice Baitx with his wife, Carol, and two sons, Brian and Kevin.

Maurice, who has just signed up for another hitch in the Marines, is stationed at the El Toro Marine Base, which is near Santa Ana. They will be visiting here over the holidays.

Fire Chief Al Baitx reports that two volunteers of the Moraga Canyon Volunteer Firemen, Vic Pagliero and John Shally, drove around the area in the fire jeep on Christmas Day, distributing candy and nuts to children they found.

The candy, etc., were left-overs purchased from the Mothers' Club from the school Christmas party. A belated Happy Birthday to Arthur Stair of Canyon Road, who celebrated his birthday Sunday. Mr. Stair is a long-time resident of Moraga and has seen many changes occur in this community.

Also, to Mrs. Evelyn Kazar, whose birthday was Monday, the day before Christmas. Evelyn is the owner of the Moraga Grocery and well known to the residents of Canyon.

Evelyn spent a quiet birthday attending her son, Mickey, who is recuperating from the measles. He's not alone, there are plenty of others!

GET WELL FAST!

Friends and neighbors were shocked to learn of the accident of Frank Sanders, long-time resident of Moraga, who is better known as "Pop" Sanders.

Sanders, who is crippled with arthritis, slipped and fell Satur-

Youngsters Portray Yule Spirit in Group of Plays

At the Carl Olson residence at 3610 Powell Drive, Lafayette, a group of youngsters from 8 to 15 years of age presented a Christmas program December 20. Under the direction and authorship of 13-year-old Bonnie Carla Olson, friends and parents of the cast were "treated" to a production that was both tender and inspiring.

The boys and girls who constituted the cast acted with reverence and respect for the parts they played, which were religious in theme.

The first scene was an original one-act play, "Christmas House," written by Bonnie, in which nearly all the cast took parts. The general thought expressed by the playlet was that a young girl who had been away in boarding schools returned home to her parents with a "high hat" attitude which, fortunately, changed to one of appreciation for her comfortable and loving home which she eventually saw through the eyes of others.

THE SECOND PART of the program was made up of adaptations of familiar Christmas stories rewritten by Bonnie. Martha Wehmeier gave a reading of Bishop Sheen's "The Day the Bells Rang," which was subsequently performed by several members of the cast.

The pantomime that accompanied Bing Crosby's "The Small One" was especially effective. The properties and costumes were created by the children. Bonnie made the donkey, which was more than realistic — especially its speed. (It was on casters — and was really "stubborn.")

The "Holy Story" was the final act. Bonnie narrated the story while the cast pantomimed in tableaux the pictorial beauty of the Nativity.

One of the many features that contributed to the effectiveness was the realism created by expert lighting, actual frankincense and myrrh scent and beautiful musical background.

THE FINALE was composed of the entire cast gathered by Jesus' crib in a beautiful pose, in lovely costumes, made by Bonnie. She listed the cast of characters and thanked all of those who contributed their help in making the performance a success.

The cast was most appreciative of their producer and enthusiastically called her forward to take day afternoon in his home, fracturing his hip.

When he finally told his family, later in the day, he was taken to the Alta Bates Hospital, where he remained over Christmas. He is now

Planning? Why Are We Not Getting Our Money's Worth

Why is it that planning and zoning of Contra Costa County, is on the whole, unsatisfactory?

Why have three of the county's top-flight planning technicians resigned during the past years?

Why are we not getting our money's worth out of the master plan for the county which will cost very, nearly three quarters of a million dollars by the time it is finished?

Obviously, there are many possible answers to these questions, depending on your point of view. We would like to suggest a few. (We are referring to county planning—not in the incorporated areas.)

It is virtually impossible for a planning commission and technical staff to do an effective job when ham-strung by a board of supervisors.

It must be extremely frustrating to attempt to do a good planning job and then have the board of supervisors overrule your recommendations time after time.

Admittedly, some of the problems the county planners must consider are tough. Thus, they hold many meetings, consider the problems carefully, and then what happens?

Frequently, the board of supervisors sends the decision of the planning commission back to the planners with an "order" to "change" their decision or "to reconsider" it.

This does not happen always, but it happens often enough to be most disturbing to those who want good planning.

Another problem is the attitude of the board of supervisors that the opinion of the planning commission and staff may be ignored with impunity.

For example, consider the case of the Round Hill subdivision in Alamo which was approved by the board of supervisors last week.

That subdivision had been recommended for denial by the planning commission on several grounds when it was presented to the board of supervisors for the first time.

The board then sent it back to the planning commission with instructions to "reconsider" their recommendation.

In this instance, the planners remained firm and returned the subdivision to the board of supervisors, again with the same recommendation for denial.

After this, the board went right ahead and approved the subdivision anyway . . . and this was in the face of strenuous objections on the part of local residents.

We are not debating the propriety of this particular decision, or this particular subdivision, but it is a perfect example of what the board of supervisors can do to a planning commission which is attempting to do a job.

If the recommendations of the planning office are going to be treated this way, why have a commission and a planning staff?

Also to be considered is the problem of the resident, the real estate broker, the contractor and developer. How can they have faith in county zoning and feel secure when they know that, even if the county zones an area, it can always be "tossed out" with one decision of the board of supervisors? In addition, planning procedures take too long.

Perhaps it is our whole approach to planning that is wrong, and it may well be time to take a new look at the whole system.

We are spending hundreds of thousands of dollars and we would like to repeat what we have said many times before—the people are not getting their money's worth under the present system.

Perhaps the Grand Jury should look at planning procedures, methods and policies. A strong recommendation from this body to the board of supervisors might have some effect.

At any rate, it is the beginning of a new year, and in this one field, planning, Contra Costa County could well use some basic changes.

We urge again that this whole area of county government be studied and re-evaluated, and perhaps some sweeping changes can be made.

If they are, it will certainly be none to soon.

What They Say . . .

'I Highly Resolve to . . . ?'

At the end of last year your Roving Reporter, along with thousands of local residents, decided that, to quote the old song, "there'll be some changes made." Then he sat down to promise himself he'd make them.

But, like so many good intentions, these promises were soon either broken or forgotten.

Whether they're kept or not, however, New Year's resolutions are here to stay. Very shortly, once again, the time to highly resolve to alter the things that went wrong this year in 1957 will be upon us.

Will folks be following this old, thought-provoking custom? Here's how some of the locals feel about it:

MRS. O. L. KING, 1176 Upper Happy Valley Road, Lafayette: "I think that just about everyone makes New Year's resolutions, including me. I haven't really decided what I'll resolve, but we've been travelling quite a bit this year, so I'd like to make my place more of a beauty spot in 1957. But we all seem to fall by the wayside in keeping the resolutions."

MRS. JOHN S. URMSON, 115 Moraga Highway, Orinda: "I'm not going to make any resolutions at all this year. In fact, I never do."

MRS. RUDOLPH A. MAJOR, 1042 Sunnybrook Drive, Lafayette: "Gee, I haven't even thought about it yet. I usually make some resolutions, and sometimes I can even keep them for part of the year. But some years I don't bother, because we usually just make them to break them."

MRS. W. S. REVEAL, 61 Meadow View Road, Orinda: "Well, I'll probably make some again this year. But I really haven't thought about it as yet."

MRS. ELIZABETH HASTINGS, 23 Lomas Drive, Walnut Creek: "I will make some resolutions for the New Year I always do. I think that one of them will be to not watch the late shows on television."

EDMUND L. BARBSEN, 3439 Paso Lane, Pleasant Hill: "I don't make New Year's resolutions. To be frank, I think they're pretty silly. If people just live the way they should, there wouldn't be a need for resolutions."

K. C. LAMPHINE, 860 Orchard Circle, Walnut Creek: "I really haven't given the subject much consideration. I don't know whether or not I will. I didn't make any last year."

MRS. O. D. KNITKEN, 590 Belleville Drive, Pleasant Hill: "No, I do not make New Year's resolutions. I think most people know what they should do and they don't need resolutions which are broken nine times out of ten."

Traveling Can Be Fun -- Despite Mothers-in-Law

By DOROTHY PATTERSON

RECENTLY WE HAD the questionable pleasure of taking a most enjoyable trip down the San Joaquin Valley, the purpose of our trip being the annual visit with my mother-in-law.

Here was not an engraved invitation, necessarily, nor was it a command. It was more or less the usual ball-point pen type of thing that sounded much like: "Dad hasn't been too well, I'm just exhausted from my nursing duties and the house is a mess. P.S. Please bring a mop and Dottie."

My mother-in-law and I get along famously, and watching me work is the only pleasure I can offer her while I'm still breathing. I shall say absolutely nothing against mothers-in-law at this time, because it doth appear that someday I shall be a mother-in-law myself. So, it will behoove you to watch carefully all those with whom your children associate during the coming years.

No room for monotony . . .

But, for the trip, no matter why, I shall always enjoy traveling—especially with my 7-year-old Anne. She has an uncanny knack for taking the monotony out of monotony. Keeps you too busy.

A typical conversation: "Was she very old?"

"No, she was a skinny gal."

"Was she nice?"

"No, she wore lipstick and she wasn't married."

That is how she tore a substitute teacher apart.

We are becoming expert in laughing so that our concern doesn't show. We consider this a neat trick. Unfortunately, it does not always work.

A provocative question

One time we stopped for gas and Anne asked the provocative question: "Do school buses ever stop at gas stations with children on them?"

I have yet to see any gas stations with children on them, but I realize there is a first time for everything.

Such conversations add lots of color to an otherwise colorless journey down the San Joaquin Valley, because there is little of anything in that valley, least of all, color.

I refer specifically to Firebaugh. And to think people live there!

You can avoid much by short-cuts

We take all the side streets that lead anywhere near our ultimate destination because Himsy is just wild about short-cuts.

One thing about short-cuts, you miss lots of traffic and you miss lots of people.

You also miss lots of highway markers, too. We miss them constantly.

This form of travel is not monotonous because you are not plagued with all those sparkling gas stations on the horizon either, and you have only to run out of gas once to appreciate this fact.

We stopped in a small town and I overheard a passerby say to her companion, "I wish you'd stop arguing, Claude. It's hard enough trying to like you as it is."

Honestly comes so easy to some people. I learn many things like this when I travel.

Tranquility — in name and terrain

On State Highway 180 there is a sign that points to a town called Tranquility, and from the look of the surrounding terrain, that seems very appropriate because there certainly is nothing visible about which to get excited. Very serene, very peaceful.

There was also a sign: "Cotton Pickers Wanted," so apparently something must happen there occasionally. If it is anything I would despise having to use, it is agitated cotton.

In 1940 a census taker must have tried the same short-cut and found the place, staying only long enough to note that 250 people exist tranquilly. There could be no further reason for lingering.

To my knowledge, no one has bothered to check this estimate since. Any changes in the census might be too exciting for those of the town who want to keep all those cotton picking hands from interfering with their Tranquility, such as it is.

I had to chuckle when I read that word Tranquility. As I figure it: Out of those 250 people, percentage-wise, there must be a few mothers-in-law living there in such peace and quiet.

But I never have been one to believe everything I read. Have you?

Dear Editor,

We should like to acknowledge with appreciation the news release service which you have extended to the Mt. Diablo Unified School District over the past year.

We consider that the newspaper is one of our most effective mediums for good public relations, and we have been constantly aware of your excellent co-operation in this regard.

If there is any way in which we may be of help to you in maintaining this service and our good relations, please do not hesitate to let me know.

LONDON GREETINGS

Dear Editor:

I'd like to wish all the readers of the Sun Publications a prosperous New Year.

It's impossible for me to send a greetings card to all the many kind people that I had pleasure in meeting during my stay in Orinda as an American Field Service International exchange student. My budget couldn't stand it, unfortunately.

However, I'd like them all to know that I have not forgotten them at this season of "peace and goodwill toward man."

During the past few months I have received many letters from people in the Lafayette-Orinda area, but time goes so fast that I have not been able to reply to them as fast as they arrive.

My most sincere apologies to those who must think me awfully rude for not having answered them. I will as soon as I possibly can. Please bear with me.

Once again, to all, the best ever New Year.

NAVY'S THANKS

Dear Editor:

I wish to take this opportunity before being transferred to the Office of Information, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., to thank you for your splendid cooperation during my four years as Officer in Charge of the Fleet Home Town News Center.

It has been an educational pleasure being associated with the nation's media. I'm sure the Center could not have enjoyed the success it has had without the valuable advice, constructive criticism, and the warm cooperation received from working newsmen, all of which I deeply appreciate.

Wishing you a profitable New Year, I am, with highest personal regards,

EDWARD R. HALLORAN

THANKS BY BLAKESLEY

Dear Editor:

A full year's experience is now rapidly passing in review . . . a time for a humble expression of thanks and appreciation for all the help we received in accomplishing a program for the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and for the members of our lovely community.

The Promotional Division and its Christmas committee, for the most successful accomplishments in many years, is due many thanks for its efforts.

The Sun, for its loyal support of the activities of the Chamber of Commerce, is to be commended. The interest of each and every relative member of the Chamber of Commerce carries the warmest of feelings in my memory.

Truly one of the biggest years in the history of Lafayette business growth, this has been one of the best years of community spirit and cooperation.

But most important to me is the vision of so much more to come. A child could have no more excited anticipation over a visit from Santa Claus than mine for the new activities ahead.

A most happy holiday to all.

LARRY BLAKESLEY

Gems of information About this and that

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

I just pulled out my file folder labeled, "Column." It's about 5 inches wide at the top and is overflowing with newspaper clips, memos and miscellaneous scraps of "valuable" information. Either I start another folder or clean out this one, so here goes:

Did you note the Oakland City Council has just passed a new ordinance prohibiting three types of pinball games? They did so upon the recommendation of Police Chief Wyman Vernon, who faced the same problem as our Sheriff Harry Brown in attempting to police these gambling devices.

Pinballs, juveniles, rumors

All but three cities in Contra Costa county have long banned ALL pinball machines and others control or completely prohibit draw poker parlors. Sheriff Brown has asked the county supervisors to do this but they adamantly refuse. Why?

Here's a note that says juvenile stealing is becoming a big problem in this area. We'll have to check into this with our law enforcement agencies.

Speaking of law enforcement—wide-spread rumor is that former Oakland Police Chief Lester Devine is an active candidate for Walnut Creek Police chief AND he could then be primed as a possible candidate for sheriff against Harry Brown. Repeat: it's a rumor.

Watch those flagmen . . .

Here is a note about the number of motorists who have been hospitalized and a number of state and county highway employees who have narrowly escaped serious injury because many motorists have ignored flagmen and warning signs on our various road projects.

For example, a woman with a small child as a passenger pulled around cars halted by a flagman. Within a block of the flagman, she crashed into a huge earth-moving machine, wrecking her car and injuring the child.

Another motorist ignored warning signs and a flagman and sandwiched his car between a truck and a scoopmobile loading it. Need more be said?

Incorporation inevitable?

Kensington will vote February 5 whether it should incorporate and become the county's twelfth city. Saratoga did so not too long ago. Incorporation is inevitable and the sooner our communities seriously consider it—the better.

Construction of the Southern Bay Crossing is not only financially impossible but plain, down-right stupid. I am amazed that Governor Knight still believes in fairy tales and thinks it can be done.

Why not us?

From the New York Times: "One-fourth of the people using public water supplies now have fluoridated water to protect children's teeth from decay, the Public Health Service reports."

"Nearly 45 per cent of the communities of 500,000 or more are fluoridating their water supplies. Among them are Chicago, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Milwaukee, San Francisco, St. Louis and Buffalo."

What about us?

New Years Eve is coming up. Please, please, let's drive carefully. If not for your own sake, how about your children?

And a happy New Year. . .

Guided Missile Plant is Possible for San Ramon

Boeing Airplane Company has taken options on acreage in the San Ramon Valley near Parks Air Force Base, for possible construction of a pilotless aircraft production plant, Lysle A. Wood, vice-president and general manager of the firm's Pilotless Aircraft Division, announced recently.

The Boeing Company already has an option for the purchase of the Ford Motor Company plant at Richmond. If the decision is made to construct a new plant in the San Ramon Valley, this would be in addition to the Richmond plant, Wood said.

Both facilities would be used in the company's pilotless aircraft manufacturing program involving the U.S. Air Force supersonic defensive guided missile known as Bomarc.

However, Wood indicated that none of the options has yet been exercised.

The decision as to purchase of property for the proposed new plant is dependent upon several factors, he said, including favorable consideration of zoning requirements by the local authorities and suitable arrangements for rail transportation and utilities at the site.

"We are very hopeful that we may be able to locate this new Boeing operation in the Bay area," Wood said. "The proposed new plant in conjunction with the Richmond factory would give us a permanent facility suitable for our pilotless aircraft production requirements."

"In addition, we feel that the area's excellent living conditions and cultural advantages are most favorable."

The Boeing Bomarc is a supersonic, long-range pilotless interceptor, designed to seek out and destroy enemy aircraft or missile in many miles from their target. It utilizes rocket boost for take-off and cruises on ram-jet power. Details on speed, size, weight, actual range and combat capabilities are highly classified by the Defense Department.

Boeing also is in large scale production of the B-52 Stratofortress long-range jet bomber and the KC-135 jet transport-tanker for the U.S. Air Force, and has firm contracts or letters of intent to purchase for 134 model 707 jet transports.

Miss Muntion Married to Wisconsin Man

Roxanna Muntion became the bride of Rhode Niemczyk Saturday in an afternoon ceremony at Christ the King Catholic Church.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of white taffeta with a fingertip veil and carried a bridal bouquet of white carnations.

Sharon Martin was maid of honor and wore a turquoise sheath dress with matching hat. William Popp of Parks Air Force Base was best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Muntion of Eccleston Avenue are the parents of the bride. Mr. Muntion, who has been working in Seattle, Wash., where the family is going to move permanently within the next few months, flew home for the wedding and will spend the holidays with his family before returning to Washington.

Rhode Niemczyk is in the service and is stationed at Parks Air Force Base. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Niemczyk of Stevens Point, Wis., were unable to attend the wedding ceremony, sending their congratulations to the couple.

Roxanna is a senior at Pleasant Hill High School and intends to complete her senior year, going to school for a half day and working for a half day.

The couple will make their home with the Muntions until the end of the school year.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home. The two then left on a three day honeymoon, returning home Monday evening for Christmas Eve with the family. The groom was due back to Parks Air Force Base on Christmas morning.

Paul Tickner Is New PG&E Local Manager

The appointment of Paul A. Tickner of Hayward as Walnut Creek manager of Pacific Gas and Electric Company, succeeding George H. Conner, was announced today.

Conner has been transferred to Oakland as commercial supervisor of the Central District of the Division. Tickner has been commercial supervisor of the Mission District, headquartered at Hayward, since 1955.

The appointments are effective Tuesday and are part of the rotation program of the company to broaden the experience of key personnel.

Tickner brings to Walnut Creek 29 years of experience in both the operating and commercial departments of PG&E since beginning his utility career with the Great Western Power Company, a predecessor company, at Oakland in 1927.

He served in both the electric and gas departments and in 1942 transferred to the sales department as commercial representative. At Walnut Creek he will have charge of the gas department service headquarters as well as the local office.

Conner was district manager of the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Company at Walnut Creek in 1954 when the company was consolidated with PG&E. He began with the Coast Counties in 1939 as a clerk and became manager in 1947.

In his new position he will supervise commercial business of PG&E in Oakland, Piedmont, Emeryville and Alameda.

Title Companies Often Like Women Says Bill

By BILL HAYWARD

HOLIDAYS ARE HAPPY DAYS... all good news... probably the biggest hunk of good news come straight from Ken Richardson, Prominent California Realtor—Developer and Finance expert. Ken Prosser, one of the greatest guys in the Title Company business will join forces with "K/R" come February 1st 1957... sort of a K/P under K/R... so to speak... Prosser has a wide experience in helping Real Estate people from the Title side of the picture... formerly with Contra Costa Title & for the past 4 years with Richmond Martinez Title Co. right in the middle of their Public Relations Department. It's a great to welcome guys like Ken Prosser into the greatest business in the world... this business of Real Estate. Talk about lucky Pierre... now it's lucky Richardson.

ANOTHER HAPPY ASSOCIATION... The North American Title Co. has announced the appointment of Frank Celte to the Post of Manager of the Concord-Pleasant Hill-Walnut Creek Division. Celte has a soft spot in his heart for Walnut Creek and we are told he will soon move here from Fresno if the fog will lift for a couple of days. Tony Aiello was also perched in the Position of Manager of Escrow at North American, strangely enough after many years in a top spot at the Contra Costa Title Co.

THESE TITLE COMPANIES ARE LIKE WOMEN... You sometimes can't do with 'em... yet on the other hand I personally don't think we can do without 'em.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS & BE READY FOR A PROSPEROUS YEAR IN 1957

COOLING SYSTEM CARE

Although you don't see it, the cooling system of your automobile gradually loses its efficiency as rust and scale form in the water jackets and radiator. It's a good idea to have the system drained and flushed at least once a year. Be sure to add a rust inhibitor when you refill the radiator.

Anybody Seen Hofbrau? Family Mourns Doggie

He was the apple of Mrs. Nancy Wolcott's eye, Hofbrau was. The well-mannered little Dachshund had been company for her in Germany, when her artillery lieutenant husband was on duty, and he was her companion when the Wolcotts returned to the U.S. and made their home at 1170 Saranap Road, Walnut Creek.

Then on night, shortly before Christmas he went out for a trot about the neighborhood and never returned.

No Dachshund had been struck by a car in the area. Veterinarians and dog pounds had no news.

Could Hofbrau have gotten lost, and perished in the cold of a California winter? Could he have been picked up and spirited away?

Or, is he in the kindly hands of someone who would like to find the real owners? The Wolcotts hope it is the latter.

When Lt. D. C. Wolcott gave the little brown and black dog to his wife, he had hoped that Hofbrau's perfect manners and gentle obedience would divert her while he was away on Army duty in Germany.

It so happened, and Nancy pleaded that Hofbrau could return to the U.S. with them.

Even with the recent arrival of a little girl in the family, Hofbrau maintained an important role in the daily life. He kept the girls company while dad was away completing his education.

Anybody seen a little brown and black Dach? Nancy says he has a slight twitch in his left front leg. Information will be welcome at YE 5-2084.

Dies After Long Illness

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. today in the Little Chapel of the Flowers. Walnut Creek, for long-time Lafayette resident Mrs. Leslie Geer, who died Wednesday in the County Hospital at Martinez.

She was 36 years old and died after a long illness.

Marguerite Sawyer Weds John Mink in Berkeley

Christmas was celebrated in Orinda following a Las Vegas honeymoon trip by the former Marguerite Sawyer of Orinda and her husband of three days, John David Mink of Piedmont.

The couple exchanged nuptial vows Saturday in St. Clement's Episcopal Church in Berkeley. Marguerite, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Henry Munson Jr., of 16 Rheem Boulevard, was escorted to the altar by her father.

For the ceremony, she was gowned in a cocktail length dress of champagne silk. It was styled with unpressed pleats in bodice and skirt front, while the side and back of the skirt were of double-tiered paniers.

HOLDING her face veil was a pearl trimmed champagne satin hat. In her hand was a white satin Bible adorned with a white orchid.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Ann Jo Sawyer, who is home in Orinda from her studies at Northwestern University. The bride is a Wellesley College graduate.

Her sister was in mint green silk taffeta, the dress made with an empire waistline and pleated bodice. Ann's headpiece was a bandeau of green leaves and she carried a small spray of white blooms.

MRS. MUNSON was in a powder blue silk afternoon dress with re-embroidered lace insets in the bodice and wore a matching blue cocktail hat, while the bridegroom's mother was in a mauve knit with gray accessories and matching satin hat.

Mr. and Mrs. John William Mink of Piedmont are parents of the benedict, who is a graduate of Armstrong College in Berkeley. Ingraham Read Jr. stood with the benedict at the altar, where the Rev. J. Henry Thomas officiated.

After the ceremony the just-weds received guests at the Hotel Claremont.

The couple resumed their honeymoon trip to the Northwest after Christmas, and will be at home in Oakland after January 14.

YES, IT WAS A MERRY CHRISTMAS at Contra Costa's Juvenile Hall. Through the efforts of the Hall's Auxiliary and residents of the county, gifts, which the children had requested, were given to them. Local Volunteers In Field Exercise

Twelve men and women recently completed a 42-hour course in radiological monitoring and have been tentatively assigned as volunteer radiological monitors to two RADEF Trailers stationed in the central part of the county. Jess John and Ralph Strudwick from Concord, and Holger Larsen from Pleasant Hill were assigned to the Martinez-Concord RADEF Trailer.

Mrs. Jerry Arenson and Mrs. Harriet Moorehead of Orinda, Charles Pass and Herbert Zenger of Danville, Erich Berthold, Jack Marshall, Arthur Joas Jr., and Mrs. Helen Morris of Pleasant Hill, and William Gripe of Walnut Creek area Trailer 35.

On December 2, these men and women took part in a field exercise held at the Contra Costa County CD Control Center on Arnold Industrial Highway. This exercise gave them the opportunity of putting into practice the techniques learned in the course.

They were sent into a field containing radioactive sources in a simulated fallout pattern, and their task was to report the intensities and locations and time of reading to the Control Center by means of handie-talkies. The Control Center deployed the teams and plotted all information on a large map.

Four members of Richmond Trailer 23 — Helen Swartz, Henry Oert, Lee Daniels and Philip Barboza — brought their RADEF Trailer to the Control Center and participated in the exercise.

Bird's Selling Is For the Birds

Auto-dealer Ed Deemer, of 3637 Brook Street, Lafayette, has lost his faith in parakeets.

After having trained his feathered pet, Pretty Boy, for months to urge everyone to buy the brand of car Deemer sells, Deemer recently felt at last the bird was ready for the big test.

Some of his company's top brass were here from Detroit, so the local decided to invite them over to demonstrate this unique sales technique. Pretty Boy had been lauding the new autos to passersby; milkmen, salesmen, and everyone else he came in contact with, so Deemer felt assured of impressing the visitors.

With his guests anxiously assembled around the bird, Deemer coaxed, "Come on, Pretty Boy, haven't you anything to say?" The reply from the bird, the guests swear, was a distinct "No."

Group Plans Text Survey Of Every County School

The steering committee of the Contra Costa County Citizens Textbook Survey Committee met on December 19 at the home of Mrs. Hal Bates to carry out work assigned to it by the first general meeting of the group December 12.

First action was sending out a resolution passed at the general meeting, which urged that state legislative authorities continue the present elementary textbook study at the state level.

IT WAS decided that this resolution should be presented to Governor Goodwin J. Knight, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, the State Board of Education, the Speaker of the Assembly, the President Pro Tem of the Senate, and the chairmen of the Senate and Assembly Education Committees.

The steering committee also outlined a tentative work program for the larger group. It includes a survey of every school in the county, as well as at the county and state levels, of the aspects of the textbook controversy that have concerned parents and other citizens, as well as educators. These will include the selection, use, and cost of both the state-selected mandatory, and the locally-purchased supplementary textbooks.

It is also planned that, upon completion of the survey, the resulting factual data and conclusions will be presented to the appropriate legislative and educational authorities, as well as to other interested citizens' groups throughout the state.

THIS PROPOSED work program will be presented at the January 15 general meeting of the group.

Funeral services were held last Friday for George Seymour, 56, retired Walnut Creek fireman. Services were conducted from the Carew and English mortuary in San Francisco.

Mr. Seymour had lived at 1180 Walker avenue for the past three years. He died of a heart attack. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Mabel E. Seymour of Walnut Creek; a daughter, Mrs. Lola Corder; a brother, Harry Seymour and two sisters, Mrs. Ina Palmer and Mrs. Lola Lammy.

Interment is in Golden Gate National Cemetery.

Mental Group Sends Presents

Christmas gifts for Napa State Hospital and for the psychiatric ward of County Hospital at Martinez has been the successful project of the Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association, according to Mrs. Hans Wendel, vice president of the association.

Christmas cookies, costume jewelry, clothing, outdoor planters, and candy were among the gifts collected.

Twenty-five dollars was donated to the hospitals for magazine subscriptions. The Danville Women's Club gave the Mental Health Association a $12 donation for Christmas gift magazine subscriptions.

"This has been the first time that we have made such an effort for the hospitals, said Mrs. Wendel. We want to thank everyone who helped make the Christmas gift drive such a success."

Cagers Concentrate on Practice Drills

Games Will Be Resumed After School Reopens

The prep basketball teams of the Diablo Valley Athletic League are having a partial vacation, in that during the school Christmas vacation they can't play any games but are allowed practice sessions, with the time, number and date left to the judgment of the individual coaches.

Emphasis is being placed on practice drills to develop individual player as well as team skills—all with an eye toward getting ready for the league openers in mid-January.

Between the opening of school next Wednesday and the league openers there will be several practice games on tap.

LAS LOMAS has been coming strong and appears to get better week by week.

They will play host to De Anza High of Richmond in a 7 p.m. game next Friday, and will then tackle Vallejo at home on Tuesday, January 8, in a 3:15 p.m. game.

The Las Lomas Knights could well start the new year right with a pair of wins.

Dick Bergdale, sharp-shooting senior, has returned to the squad after a siege of ineligibility, and, with a bit rusty from a layoff, figures to give the Knights help where it counts most—in the scoring column.

Teamed with Joe Sibley, he could give the Walnut Creek team the scoring punch so essential to hit the win column.

LEAGUE PLAY for the Knights starts against the Acalanes Dons on Friday, January 11, with the game opening at 7:30 p.m.

The Dons' remaining practice tilts find them playing San Ramon High at Danville next Friday in a 7 p.m. game and then meeting John Swett of Crockett on January 8 at 3:30 p.m. at Acalanes.

Coach Jean Ridley's Dons could well finish in first division if he gets his number 1 club rounded up as far as eligibility is concerned. Four regulars will sit the San Ramon game out for varied and sundry reasons.

It remains to be seen if the squad can pull itself back together if and when all hands become available.

THE PLEASANT HILL Rams have been getting top scoring from Guard Bob Ritchie despite the fact that he has difficulty going the route, due to personal fouls.

The problem has been to get more consistent effort at the bucket from other team members. Could be they are saving it for league play.

The Rams have a pair of games on the practice schedule after the first of the year.

They play the University of California frosh at Berkeley in the UC gym at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday, January 8, and they wind up the practice season against Monterey at Pleasant Hill on Friday, January 11.

THE MIRAMONTE Matadors are playing an independent schedule this year, as they have only frosh and sophs in school—but off the basis of their showing they will do all right when they enter league play next year.

They have played Antioch, Alhambra and Acalanes varsity reserves in games to date and have copped the nod in each outing, so they enter the new year with an unblemished record.

They play a pair of new foes with the advent of 1957.

It's a home game for Miramonte on Thursday, January 10, when they play Pleasant Hill, starting at 3:30 p.m., and they wind up that week's play on Friday, January 11, when they play Harry Ellis of Richmond at Richmond in another 3:30 p.m. game.

Twenty-two Contra Costa farmers are among a group of 300 California Farm Bureau members attending the American Farm Bureau convention in Miami Beach, Florida, last week.

The California delegation left from Los Angeles December 1 aboard a special Southern Pacific train and spent six days en route to the convention making stops at points of interest along the way.

Among those from Contra Costa County taking part in this farmers' business and pleasure trip are Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. Bertha Shale, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Gelbke, and Mrs. Kittie Graham of Concord; Mr. Frank Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Near, Mrs. Doris McConnell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Straight, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Valentine of Walnut Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wiedemann of San Ramon; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Carr of Moraga; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Elworthy of Danville.

NEW RECORD
Sport fishermen and wild game hunters in the United States set a new record by purchasing 33,046,361 licenses during the fiscal year that ended June 30, 1955, according to the National Automobile Club. That was $2,162 more licenses than they purchased during the previous year.

Time's Here for Guessing About 1957 Prep Sports

BY ERWIN MATTSON

THE NEW YEAR is about here, and it's always a good guessing game as to what it will bring in the prep sports field. What will the headlines be and who will cop those mythical pennants?

In basketball the pre-season pick was the Pittsburg Pirates. Time has only lengthened the odds, as the Pirates at this writing are the league's only undefeated club, their latest victim being San Mateo High.

Mt. Diablo has impressed and certainly rates as a top-flight club. Under the new league practice rules the Devils have been at it hot and heavy. It remains to be seen if they have hit their peak too soon and will fade in late season.

Antioch looks to be a contender with considerable all-around strength and could be the circuit's winning dark horse. The Panthers have been playing consistent ball and winning, which is about all a coach can ask.

Acalanes has shown bright in spots but has had difficulty keeping its first five together. The reserves are on the thin side, so it's pretty much of a question-mark as to how the Dons will do in league play.

THE PLEASANT HILL Rams have done well in practice games and should be in their new gym, which should give them a shot in the arm.

Las Lomas has been improving, and in Joe Sibley and Dick Bergdale the Knights have the good nucleus of scoring potential.

Coach Merrill Callow has been using lots of players in practice games and has done a great deal of experimenting. Tab them for a surprise in league play.

Pacific enters its second year of league play in the hoop sport. To date the Spartans have played some good ball. Their ace is Larry Kent, who was a top scorer last season in league play.

IN SWIMMING in '57, chalk the Acalanes Dons up as the varsity champs.

They won league and North Coast top spots last year, and on paper will repeat, paced by such veterans as George Harrison, Corky Kiesel and Val Geissler, to mention but three.

Las Lomas and Diablo will probably battle it out for the runner-up spots.

IN TRACK, Acalanes, Pittsburg and Diablo will be the top three.

Give Diablo the edge, due to good depth. Pittsburg will have the first places but, as usual, depth will be the big obstacle to overcome.

Acalanes has fair depth and a good number of top men, especially in the distance runs, thanks to a strong cross-country team.

IN BASEBALL, it looks like a good season from a competitive point of view.

Diablo and Acalanes tied last year. Both have veteran teams returning, and both should be top contenders.

Pittsburg and Antioch won't be pushovers. Las Lomas is on the upgrade, while Coach Lyle Palmer of Pleasant Hill will always have a good club, as interest is great.

Pacific has picked up in other sports, and baseball should be no exception.

Give Diablo the edge, due to pitching depth.

GOLF AND TENNIS could well go to Acalanes. Some schools don't compete, but more and more schools are developing an all-around program.

Pittsburg has plans for a swimming pool that are tops, so Pittsburg will be another member in the swim circuit in another year.

TOP STORIES in the local prep sport world of the past year: George Harrison, the Don senior, going to the Olympics.

Pittsburg undefeated for the second straight season in football, with Las Lomas a strong runner-up.

Webb Johnson, the Las Lomas grid great, making the center spot on the All-Northern California team.

The announcement of the new split in the league for 1958-59—as outlined in this column last week. Next year will mark the end of the Diablo Valley Athletic League, as it now stands. It grows like Contra Costa County, and it will be three circuits instead of two, with Piedmont as a new member.

REPLACING TIRES

When you replace the tires on your car, it's best to have all tires the same size and the same tread design. When you rotate tires from wheel to wheel you will not have any problems of uneven ride or uneven wear caused by unmatched tires.

Cancer Society Issues Booklet On Smoking

A new pamphlet presenting the American Cancer Society's position on the relationship of cigarette smoking to cancer of the lung was received in the Walnut Creek branch office of the American Cancer Society recently.

announced Dr. A. R. Reinke, president of the Contra Costa County branch.

The pamphlet's title is "Where We Stand Today on Cigarettes and Lung Cancer." It is available without charge from the Branch headquarters at 2363 Mt. Diablo Blvd., Walnut Creek. Dr. Reinke said.

A comprehensive 20 page treatment of the subject, it draws on the Society's four-year study of the smoking habits of 188,000 men. Of these cases, approximately 12,300 were Californians.

In answer to the question "Shall I give up smoking?" the booklet says: "The American Cancer Society feels that this must be a personal decision based on evidence available today."

The evidence suggests that cigarettes are a health hazard. The specific effect of cigarette smoking on a particular individual cannot be predicted.

On the question of future plans, the pamphlet declares: "The American Cancer Society will continue to support research efforts to find out whether one or more substances in cigarettes, industrial fumes, gasoline and diesel engine exhausts, in dust from asphalt or bituminous roads, etc., actually cause lung cancer in man."

It concludes, "The Society will continue to present the evidence as it develops. The Society does not tell people not to smoke. But it intends to continue to provide the public with available information."

Walden Residents Lose Opener in $500,000 Suit

Fifty-five property owners of the Walden area northeast of Walnut Creek lost the first round of their suit against the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District to collect $500,000 in damages resulting from last December's torrential rains.

Superior Judge Harold Jacoby last week sustained the demurrer of Attorney John A. Nejedly, counsel for the district, but gave the plaintiffs equal footing for a second skirmish.

The judge authorized attorneys for the residents 10 days to amend their complaint affecting the district. The original suit names the county and the County Flood Control District.

Property owners alleged that the county negligently allowed concrete pilings and a 36-inch pipe crossing a creek to act as a "dam," thus causing the Walnut Creek overflow.

This flooded land on Cherry, Westcliffe and Haven Lanes, Contra Costa and San Ramon Valleys, and Lushern Courts and Frances Way, the suit maintains.

Attorneys for the property owners said they would file an amended complaint as to the district and would continue to press for trial of the action against the county.

Polio Danger To Adults Is Outlined

Governor Knight's drive to have all Californians vaccinated against polio received hearty endorsement by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis when that organization's regional medical consultant, Dr. Charles Price, addressed Contra Costa County March of Dimes leaders recently.

Speaking to about 50 March of Dimes chairmen at Orinda about the January polio drive, Dr. Price reported that 15 per cent of all polio in the United States occurs in California.

California is one of the few states where polio increased in 1956 over 1955's number of cases," Dr. Price said.

"Seventy-five per cent of the people here are unprotected against polio, and of those who have protection, most are children who received the vaccine in the school and health department programs."

Dr. Price pointed out that only three per cent of people over the age of 20 are protected against polio, yet this disease is increasing among adults.

"There will be a minimum of one to two thousand cases of polio in this state in 1957, unless all Californians under 40 are vaccinated," he declared.

"The primary aim of the March of Dimes in the coming year is to finish the job — to tick polio by protecting everyone who could be its victim. All our health agencies are cooperating — it is up to us to let people know why they should be vaccinated and where they can secure this protection."

Rev. Lewis' Message May Go on 'Voice of America'

A message from the Rev. Chester R. Lewis of Lafayette Community Methodist Church to Soviet leaders may be broadcast over the Voice of America program in the near future to Eastern Europe.

That's the word Mr. Lewis has received from an assistant to Secretary of State Dulles. The letter was mailed last Friday to the Soviet leaders. It was dated November 16; an explanatory note explained that he delay was due to the fact that the letter was originally submitted to the United States State Department.

Identical letters have been mailed to Nikolai Bulganin, Soviet premier; Nikita Khrushchev, head of the Communist Party in Russia; George N. Zorobin, Soviet ambassador to the United States, and Arkady A. Sobolev, Soviet delegate to the United Nations.

President Eisenhower, Secretary of State Dulles and Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., United States delegate to the United Nations all have copies of the letter.

The letter follows: "I am writing this letter to you and to the great nation that you represent in an attitude of genuine friendship. It is only in an atmosphere of friendship and its corollary of trust and confidence that people can appreciate and understand one another."

"I believe that friendship is basic and is preliminary to the discussion and solution of any problems that may exist between persons and nations. Undoubtedly the same principle apply in the relationship of nations as in the relationship of individuals."

"When two persons come together motivated by the spirit of friendship for the other and a desire to bring happiness to each, then nothing but good can come of it."

"I speak for no one but myself but it is my firm conviction that the American people are a friendly and warm-hearted people who wish ill to no one and good to all. Our culture centers in the dignity and worth of the individual. We try never to forget that societies and nations are composed of individual persons and that the happiness and welfare of the individual is the happiness and welfare of the whole."

"WE EXTEND this concept beyond our own borders and to all nations and peoples of the earth. We think of the world and the Universe as something of a cosmic unity that makes each a part of the other and which we cannot escape no matter how hard we may try."

"The unity of all things is easily demonstrable in every walk of life. It is demonstrable in science, philosophy and religion, and in nature itself. The scientist calls this the Law of Cause and Effect; in religion and morals we call it the Law of Consequences. As you sow so shall you reap. The essential unity of things is inherent in the Universe and there is no escape from it. That means that the universe is not a junk-shop but is intelligence supreme, orderly and dependable."

"Undoubtedly we are somewhat an empirical people; always experimenting and looking for new and better ways. We lay no claim to even an approach to perfection and err often and grievously. However, on the whole, I think it must be said that we are a happy people who wish the same abundance and peace and happiness for everyone regardless of national origin."

"It is because of this philosophy, fundamental to the American Way of Life, that we are sensitive to the needs and suffering of people wherever they may be. I think history will validate my assertion that wherever there is hurt the American people are responsive. This is because we think of human beings as persons, individual entities, flesh and blood like ourselves who wish only to live in peace, rear and provide for their families."

"WITH THIS as a backdrop so that you can understand my thinking, perhaps you will understand why I and tens of millions of other human beings over this earth, undoubtedly some of your own, were worse than horrified, they were outraged over the actions of your government in Hungary and especially Budapest during the last 30 days."

"The actions of your government in sending military force across your own borders and into the land of another, spreading death and destruction in all directions, bombing and machine-gunning innocent people, running down with tanks, shooting up hospitals filled with children, spreading terror every place your soldiers went, went, women and children dying before the fire of your guns, was in the eyes of all the world, beastly, rapine conduct unworthy of any civilized people."

"There have been many acts of barbarism in the history of the human race, but these actions by your military have equalled or surpassed the worst. It will take a long time for your government to win the respect and confidence of civilized society."

"In the event you may deem it wise to deny these charges all we can say is that it is keeping with past conduct. To say that Russian troops were there by treaty is pure mockery. No free nation ever contracted with another to destroy its own people. If you were to appear in any free court in any free country to defend your actions you would soon discover that you had no defense."

"WE DO NOT set ourselves up as an example for anyone. However, as you know, we just went through an election. In this free democratic process there were no liquidations, and we have no Siberia. We were divided into two parties but there is no fear among us. We have no secret police to knock on our door in the middle of the night and carry us away into slavery and death."

"We have a saying that 'those who live by the sword shall die by the sword.' History records that tyrants have always been destroyed. Because of the essential goodness of the universe, tyrants may rule for a day but they die by their own hands. There is no escape from the law of Cause and Effect; the Law of Consequences. If the wheels of justice grind slowly, they grind very fine indeed."

"As I said in the beginning, these words are written with a sense of hatred, out of a heart that bleeds from the suffering that has been brought into the world."

"WE URGE UPON you, plead with you, in a spirit of complete friendliness for your people, to withdraw your soldiers, and cannon from Hungary and from all the other slave peoples in eastern Europe, even up into the Baltic, whom you rule under the threat of death and fear."
